How to Grow Food

Saturday February 28* from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Learn to plan, plant, and maintain a four-season vegetable garden through discussion, demonstration, and activities led by the RGWFO staff. Topics include:

- Growing organically
- Designing a garden that works for you
- Understanding local growing conditions
- Starting new plants

Registration is required. Teachers receiving CEU will attend a three hour follow-up session, Food Gardening at School. Space is limited. Call the Education Office 336-758-3485 to confirm that space is available before sending registration.

*In case of severe weather, the workshop will postponed until Saturday March 7.
