

Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest University Young Naturalists 2011

Two one-week sessions:

June 13 through 17

June 20 through 24

From 9:00 a.m. until noon each day

Cost: $115.00

($100.00 for Friends of Reynolda Gardens)

Young Naturalists offers an opportunity for boys and girls who have finished grades one through five to learn about the natural world by exploring the gardens, greenhouses, woodlands, fields, and streams of Reynolda and creating nature-related projects. Knowledgeable adults and experienced assistants lead small groups of Young Naturalists. Field walks are led by visiting scientists and naturalists. The program is based in the historic Boathouse. Parents and friends are invited to a reception and exploration led by their children on Friday.

Registration is taken by US mail. The fee must be enclosed with the registration form; checks payable to Reynolda Gardens of WFU. You will receive confirmation of the reservation and detailed information on program activities by e-mail. Space is limited; call the Education Office to confirm that space is available before sending registration. Send to:
